FBLA-PBL Announces Director of Finance and Operations
Doreen Mugure joins National Center team to lead accounting, human resources, and facilities

Reston, Va. – The Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda, Inc. (FBLA-PBL), the premier student business organization, today announced the appointment of Doreen Mugure as the National Center's Director of Finance and Operations effective January 25, 2021.

As Director, Ms. Mugure will lead the organizations' accounting, budgeting, human resources, banking, information technology, and operational needs such as facilities. The position is a new appointment created to support FBLA-PBL's mission and fulfill the organization's strategic plan goal to improve capacity and capabilities to lead as a Career Technical Student Organization (CTSO).

"Doreen brings robust financial and operational skills to this new position. In addition, she brings a fresh leadership perspective guided by her commitment to mission-driven organizations," tells FBLA-PBL President & CEO, Alexander T. Graham

Ms. Mugure has a strong belief that proper financial management is key to the successful fulfillment of an organization's mission. Doreen has over 15 years of professional experience in the Finance and Accounting field, with eight-plus years of that time spent in the non-profit sector where she has successfully taken responsibility for the financial and operational management of several organizations. Most recently, Doreen has been working at an international non-profit as the Director of Finance, a newly established position when she first started, that has successfully helped steward the organization into a more efficient and financially transparent operation. Doreen holds a BS in Accounting with a Minor in Business Management and an Impact MBA from Colorado State University. Through her training and work in the Impact MBA program, she developed a passion for Social and Sustainable Enterprises that focus on successful outcomes of not just their economic bottom line, but a positive difference in the community and environment as a whole. In addition to working in the United States, she has also lived and worked in Kenya and Zambia. In her free time, Doreen enjoys travelling and exploring other cultures, and also spending time with her large extended but close-knit family.
